Day 4

Activity 1 Mini-Pumpkin Pies! This is such a hit with the kids. If you have time, try your hand at making your own crust. The kids will love rolling it out. If you are in a hurry – you can get the premade dough. If doing this with a group, you can have the puree prepared.

(This site walks you through how to select the right pumpkin and includes adjusting along the way. Great for an older child who wants to learn to bake from scratch!

Activity 5 Providence Challenge – print the page below.

Activity 6 Print the images below and see if they can sort them our chronologically. See pg 109 for order. Added to this list are Mayflower voyage, meeting Squanto, building their settlement, and their Thanksgiving feast.

Activity 10 Corn Planting Project

Activity 11. Medieval music links.

- <https://youtu.be/f2bTCCwJ7y8>
- <https://youtu.be/DA5ZxsmSVVA?si=ztyk2Sik26fPyTcY> (Nutmigs & Gingers)
- <https://youtu.be/98C4DcTzw0M?si=pjaVvg0-AKc-i1BH> (Joyne Hands)
- Interesting historical look at trying to figure out what songs/tunes they might have been familiar with. In their church services, they did not use musical instruments. This is interesting for those who are musical and want to delve deeper:
